

Amendments to the Abstract

Please replace the Abstract, submitted on 20 August 2004, with the following Abstract:

-- ~~The invention relates to a~~ A method of processing data, encrypted according to an encryption method specific to a first domain, in which ~~such that they~~ data cannot be decrypted without the aid of a first secret specific to the first domain, ~~these~~ The ~~data being~~ is received in a presentation device connected to a network belonging to a second domain. The method comprises the steps ~~consisting, for the presentation device, in~~ of:

(a) transmitting at least a portion of said encrypted data to a processing device connected to the network ~~at least a portion of said encrypted data~~ and;

(b) receiving from said processing device at least one element being used to decrypt said received data with the aid of a second secret specific to the second domain, the second secret being contained in the presentation device. --